There was no meeting of the City Council, Tuesday evening for want of a quorum. A called meeting for general purposes will be held some evening this week.

Mrs. Haines has moved her military store into the room one door west of the one which she has been occupying, where she will continue her business as of old.

Soldiers, don't forget to attend the meeting of the Hocking County Pension Association at Rempel's Opera House, July 4th, at 11 o'clock, a. m.

While out driving his new horse last Wednesday evening, Geo. Smock had a pretty lively runaway, but fortunately no one was hurt.

If there were war times and there was a protest march around, as in the days when Ben White lashed the turtle, some of our citizens would be arrested for blowing their nose on the American flag.

The editor of the Sentinel is absent on the editorial excursion, and the "imp" has full charge of this issue. All errors of omission and commission must be charged to his account.

Joe Haffer has raised a Democrat pole in his yard with a bandanna and the stars and stripes at the top. Joe is a good Democrat and is not ashamed of his party. Long may she wave.

We credit the able articles on Lancaster's resources, etc., which give the Ohio Eagle such metropolitan proportions last week, to John Wright, formerly of ours.

Prof. McCray, for nearly thirty years Superintendent of the Public Schools of Logan, has been succeeded by Prof. Raymond, of Lithopolis. The Logan Sentinel pays the retiring Superintendent a well deserved compliment in its last issue.

Miss Maria Parsons has moved into her new room, one door east of Dr. Campbell's office, on the site of the fire. Miss Parsons invites the ladies to her new rooms to examine goods and prices. She has the best millinery goods that can be purchased, and in trimming can not be excelled.

Mr. Low McGill has moved his cigar shop to the room opposite the Rempel House, formerly occupied by Tom Glenn. Mr. McGill keeps nothing but the best, and invites the public to give him a trial. Remember the place and when you want something good in the tobacco line give him a call.

The announcement of Harrison's nomination in Logan on Monday, was not received with enthusiasm. There was no demonstration—no impromptu ratification, and the sad-eyed man was largely in the majority in Republican circles. They were disappointed that Blaine was not nominated, and like Rachel of old, "will not be comforted."

The following members of the Ohio Valley Editorial Association and invited guests left Logan Monday evening, in charge of Conductor Warren: Lewis Green, F. S. Purcell and lady, Ed. L. Davenport, Chancy Bishop, W. H. Willard, Judge S. H. Bright and lady, R. W. Keynes and lady, O. W. H. Wright, Mrs. C. M. Gould and son, W. P. Price, Cal Rober, C. E. Bowen and lady, Reuben Spurrer, Fred Rochester and Chas. Parker. At the depot they were met by members of the press gang from Lancaster, Columbus and other points, arriving at Gallipolis about nine o'clock. Tuesday morning, the excursionists boarded the steamers for Portsmouth.

A meeting of the Association took place, and a banquet was tendered them by the Board of Trade. Today, the party will leave Portsmouth via rail, for the New River and Greenbrier regions of West Virginia, White Sulphur Springs, and then on to Richmond, where they will remain over a day, thence to Old Point Comfort, where the end of the road is reached.

A SENTINEL reporter called on Mr. White of the Logan Mfg. Co., the other day and solicited a local advertisement. Said that gentleman, "What is the use of advertising when we have more business now than we can attend to. Why, actually I haven't had time this morning to blow my nose." I stopped talking and looked around. Employees all busy selling goods. Beautiful chairs, suits of furniture, everything, and the amount of business transacted for the good quality of the goods and the fair dealing of the firm. Mr. Frank Lehman, their undertaker, has a latest improved ice box, and is prepared to do embalming. He can be found at all hours of the night at the Rempel House.

The liquor tax. Some time since the Prosecuting Attorney, of Toledo, asked Attorney General Watson for an opinion on the Dow liquor tax. He desired to know whether a person in the business at the time the $250 clause took effect could sell to a successor, or in the event of death pay less than $50. The Attorney General decides that the original owner must pay at least $50, and the successor can pay pro rata for the remainder of the year. He holds that after the original party goes out that it is a new business, and that the tax is upon the business. [Columbus Dispatch.]

Vegetables, Fruits, Produce. Andy Holl, Jr., the cash East End Grocer has a full line of fresh groceries, provisions and a general line of notions, large assortment of tobacco and cigars, choice line of bottled onions, mixed pickles, cauliflower, spiced pickles and sweet pickles. Fresh vegetables every day. Fruits, produce of all kinds on hand. Pay cash for butter and eggs. Farmers bring your butter and eggs and get cash for them. Call and see Andy Holl, Jr., the cash grocer and get prices. Opposite the Old Buz House.

Wool Wanted. J. W. Monahan would inform the wool growers of Perry, Morgan, Athens, Hocking and adjoining counties, that he will take in wool at the usual places, and will pay the highest market prices for the same. Farmers will do well to learn what he will pay before disposing of their wool.

A Card of Thanks. Mr. and Mrs. William Miller desire this publicly to thank the good people of the city, whose kindly services so freely and generously rendered during the illness and at the funeral of their young daughter Anna May, will ever be held in grateful remembrance.

They Must Go. Chas. Rose, the one price Clothing man, says his Summer Clothing must go, and he has marked the entire stock down to marvelously low prices. He has no room to carry over unseasonable goods, and now is the time, and Chas. Rose's the place to get a cheap summer suit.

This section was visited by a copious rain on Monday evening last, which was hailed with delight by all our people. It was much needed, as potatoes, corn and garden stuff were in a suffering condition, after the intense heat of last week.

Last week the thermometer ranged from 90 to 102 degrees in the shade. Of course there was the usual amount of complaint about the "awfully hot weather," but it has had the effect of ripening the wheat very rapidly, and we will have an early harvest in consequence. The crop promises to be a good one, better than was expected some weeks since.

Miss Maggie Case spent Sunday in Groveport, the guest of Rev. A. R. Miller and family.

Lewis G. Cook, of the Soldiers' Orphan's Home at Xenia, has received employment at Gill & Co's tinshop, Columbus, O.

The Little Hatchet. An ugly row occurred at Mag Downey's place on Saturday evening last. A gang of Haydenville boys came to Logan in the afternoon, and after partaking freely of stimulants, the most reckless of the party proceeded to Mag's house on the hill, but were refused admittance. One of the number named Pollock attempted to make a forcible entrance, when the Downey woman stepped to the front with a little hatchet and dealt Pollock a few blows on the head, making ugly gasps, which had the effect of dispersing the gang. Later in the evening Pollock was arrested and taken before Deputy Mayor Brehm on charge of disturbing the peace. He was fined $3 and costs, which he paid, and left the town.

The reason that the Hock-hock Club did not ratify the nomination of Harrison and Morton immediately on receiving the news, Monday afternoon, same as the Democrats did on receiving the news of the nomination of Cleveland and Thurman, was on account of Miller & Runnels' great railroad show being on exhibition in our town, and not, as some evil disposed persons have circulated, that the nominations fell like a wet blanket upon their shoulders and cooled their ardor. "Give the devil his dues."

The Democrats are for a reduction of the tariff, for a restoration of the public lands to the people, for a revival of the American navy by a revival of American commerce; for a strict observance of the rights of the States, free from all centralizing influences, for a pension list alike to soldier and citizen, and for the purification of public offices.

Against these reforms is arrayed the whole power of the Republican party, today little more than the hired army of the trusts and syndicates among the capitalists and monopolists of the East. Between these two parties as represented by their platforms and their candidates, a freedom loving people should find decision easy.

A Chinese lantern tied to a kite that was poised in midair caused a sensation among the negroes of Augusta, Ga., a few nights ago. The uncanny light dancing in the heavens terrified them, and their cries and prayers are said to have been woeful to hear. One old woman prophesied that it was a warning to them all to repent.

Another battle between the Jones and Green factions in Hancock county, Tenn., has been fought, in which a five year old child was killed and several of the combatants wounded. Over 200 shots were fired, and the cheering intelligence is added that another invoice of rifles has been shipped to the scene of war.

Dropped from a Spire.

BUFALO, N. Y., June 24.—People in the vicinity of Washington market this afternoon saw a tragedy that they will not soon forget. The chimneys in St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church had just ceased ringing when some of the folks in Washington street saw a man climbing the tall spire of the church.

The crowd increased as the man slowly pulled himself toward the top by means of the lightning rod. It seemed every moment to the spectators as if the climber would fall, but he went hand over hand to the apex. When he reached the foot of the cross the lightning rod gave way. The man made a futile effort to throw his arms about the spire, but it was too large, and then he fell headlong to the roof of the body of the Church, a distance of one hundred feet. His neck was broken and his brains dashed out.

Policeman McGuire, who saw the fall called fire truck 3 and the firemen took down the body, and the policemen conveyed it to headquarters.

The victim of the tragedy was Charles Sullivan, a telegraph lineman, who lived near the church. He had been drinking some during the day, and made a bet with some acquaintances, first as to the height of the spire, and second as to his ability to climb it safely. When Sullivan went to the tower to climb the bellman refused to let him pass, but afterward he slipped by him, and the first they knew of the fatal climb was when they saw the bleeding body on the church roof after the fall. Sullivan's betting friends got away as soon as possible to avoid arrest.

Shot Down in the Georgia Woods. Atlanta, June 26.—Ned Clark, colored, was lynched today in Worth County. Clark was charged with attempting to assault a young girl thirteen years of age. His captors were conveying him to Irwin county, the scene of his crime. They returned without him, stating that he had attempted to escape while in the woods and was shot down. His body was found with nineteen bullets in it, and the bushes around it riddled with balls.

Postmaster General Dickinson, in announcing to postmasters the approval by the President of the act of Congress relative to writing upon the outside of envelopes or wrappers that such matters will be treated precisely as obscene matter for the reason that the provisions of section 380, postal laws and regulations. Any postal card, or any other matter upon the envelope or outside cover of which appears anything which reflects injuriously upon the person addressed, or any one else, or upon his character or conduct, or is plainly calculated and intended to injure his feelings or reputation, or bring him into discredit or which threatens him, will be excluded. Anything in the nature of an offensive or threatening document upon an envelope, outside cover or postal card, or conveying the suggestion that such document is enclosed, will be excluded as non-mailable under this act.

While the Republicans are charging the Mills bill with being a free-trade document, the fact is it does not go near as far as President Arthur did in his tariff message. He said:

I recommend an enlargement of the free list so as to include within it the numerous articles which yield inconsiderable revenue; a simplification of the complex and inconsistent schedule of duties upon certain manufactures, particularly those of cotton, iron and steel and a substantial reduction of the duties upon these articles, and upon sugar, molasses, silk, wool and woolen goods.

We commend the perusal of this to the Republicans who have misstated the facts about President Cleveland's message.

Chicago Recommendations. Washington Critic.—I've got a barrel.—Alger. I've got a record.—Sherman. I've got a grandfather.—Harrison. I've got a tongue.—Ingalls. I've got a State.—Allison. I've got a back set.—Gresham. I've got a bloody shirt.—Forsaker. I've got a chance.—McKinley. I've got a party by the tail.—Blaine.

In 1876 Benjamin F. Harrison the present Republican nominee for governor of Indiana ran against "Blue Jeans" Williams.

The vote stood as follows: Williams..... 213,164 Harrison..... 203,030

Williams over Harrison..... 5,084 Harrison never succeeded in carrying Indiana on a popular vote. The claim that he will carry Indiana in November is entirely visionary.

Distasteful Twins. Probably the most distasteful specimen of humanity in this vicinity is to be seen in Lanesburg. Twelve weeks ago twins—a boy and girl—were born to a family named Blumer. At birth the twins weighed little less than three pounds, and an ordinary finger-ring could slip over the hand, or foot of either child. Some weeks since the boy died, and the girl, although now three months old, does not tip the scales at three pounds. She is a wee bit of a thing, and can be held in the palm of the hand. The child seems to have very good health, however.—Troy, N. Y. Times.

That's the Fact, Mr. Chairman.

We rise to a question of privilege, and present our case for the favorable consideration of the People.

Our address is brief but full of interest to the public.

Men's & Youth's

The purchaser must find what he wants both in quality and price. To deal with us is to reap benefits for excellent anything you may derive elsewhere in the Hocking Valley. Our

Boys' and Children's

Department will impress you at once what a revolution CHAS. ROSE has created in this line, surpassing anything a Mother can make, and equal to the Custom Made garments in this town. Why sit at home and fret over the masses that the children who leave our Store were never better clothed and at so little cost, which your examination will confirm.

Chas. Rose.
